Bonjour!

RK PUBLISHING was officially born in 2000 with a mission to offer FSL teachers the best possible resources to use in their French classes. Indeed, today, we are the only Canadian publisher that specializes uniquely in FSL. We are a team of dedicated professionals whose goal is to promote bilingualism in Canada by creating resources that are easy to use and student-friendly.

Our goal is to meet the needs of FSL students, to develop in them a sense of the passion we feel for the language and cultures of Francophone communities around the world, and hopefully, to provide them with opportunities to succeed so that they see the rich rewards of staying in French and learning how to use the language.

Our resources are written by teachers for teachers so that classroom teachers can provide their students with active learning opportunities and age appropriate choices to demonstrate their knowledge and understanding and to develop their creative and critical thinking skills.

The RK Publishing team is a group of dedicated Canadian FSL publishing specialists whose goal is to provide you with the best possible FSL resources that will allow French teachers and students to embrace fluency and literacy through an acculturation experience.

Come join our team of believers… we look forward to serving you now and in the many years to come.

Warm regards,

The RK Publishing Team

Introducing…

Tu parles! 2

… the continuation of Tu parles! 1

It builds on the Grade 9 Core French resource and further develops the French language skills of the Grade 10 student by fulfilling 100% of the revised Ontario FSL Curriculum expectations.

Engaging scenarios with real students that communicate about real world situations and challenges of the 21st Century.

Everyday contexts make learning meaningful to students since it facilitates communication in realistic and immediately applicable situations.

Students will develop the skills and strategies necessary for lifelong language learning.

CEFR Guide:

Teachers can assess students’ language level against internationally recognized levels and provide parents with meaningful reporting that describes what a student can do with the language.

- Administrators can develop evaluation instruments to measure students’ language acquisition and to compare students’ levels with other learners within and across school boards, provinces and countries.
- Parents can know what their child can do with their language learning in a positive and easy-to-understand format.

CEFR in Action DVD

The CEFR in Action DVD offers three expert panelists, Dr. Laura Hermans, Dr. Enrica Piccardo and Dr. Shelley Taylor, discussing and providing valuable insight into how to successfully incorporate the CEFR into Canadian French classroom.
