Preparation and Self-Assessment
Action Task 1: You have just been invited to attend a summer day camp in Quebec for the first week of July with your 12-year-old cousin from Montreal. You will choose which camp. You'll be staying at your cousin's house while you both attend the camp. Your parents have told you that the camp must cost less than $250 per week and be close to Montreal. It's already the last week of June, so you'll have to hurry to make all the necessary preparations. PERFORMANCE/PRODUCT: Phone the camp office and give them the information required to reserve your spot. Download and complete the registration form from the camp's website.	Action Task 2: Your sports team (soccer, basketball, hockey, dance, etc.) will be touring Quebec next summer and will be based in Chicoutimi. Your team has arranged to make a special French trading card for each member to commemorate your visit. Decide what information you would like to appear on your card before discussing your choices with the printer. PERFORMANCE/PRODUCT: Phone the printer in Chicoutimi to discuss the content and the format of the card. The printer will also need to make sure that you have not used too many words. Use the information you have gathered and the suggestions you got from the phone conversation, along with the photo you chose, to create a sports trading card.	Action Task 3: Your class has been invited to audition for a TV talent show. All those interested need to appear in a short, 30-second audition video where they will introduce themselves and briefly demonstrate their talent. The producer of the show will do a live filming of your audition and ask questions to get to know you better. PERFORMANCE/PRODUCT: Film your 30-second audition live in front of the producer. Answer any questions he or she may have and make the most of this opportunity to showcase your personality and talent. Complete the TV show's application form.
